Gromyko Anxious for Terms on Summit Conference

DELEGATES TO APALACHIN CONFERENCE ARE ACCUSED OF OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE

By DANIEL LEHANE

NEW YORK (AP)—The power of the federal government today was turned upon the notorious 1957 underworld convention at Apalachin, N. Y., with 27 delegates indicted on charges of conspiring to balk probes of it.

Arrests of the defendants quickly got under way. Many already were in trouble, and some in jail, as a result of refusal to answer questions of various investigatory agencies previously. The crackdown was the result of nearly a year's effort by a special crime-busting agency set up by the U. S. attorney general's office, with teams of agents working across the nation.

Extra Funds To War On Racketeers

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Extra funds for the war against hoodlums and racketeers were recommended today by the House Appropriations Committee in a $649,896,700 bill financing the State and Justice departments and related agencies.

The new money, $32,490,900 less than the President requested, is for use during the fiscal year starting July 1.

It includes $200,000 for a special Justice Department program to prosecute organized criminals; and the entire $114,600,000 asked by the FBI to beef up its staff of special agents and field service personnel. Fifty additional agents are to be added.

Major items in the bill provide:

$217,610,000 for the State Department, a cut of $10,725,000.

$264,100,000 for the Justice Department, a cut of $10,975,000.

$115,057,300 for the U. S. Information Agency, a cut of $7,492,700.

$6,145,500 for the President's special international program, a cut of $654,500.

$280,000 for the Civil Rights Commission, a cut of $8,000.

$48,703,900 for the federal judiciary (Turn to Page Twenty-two)

Coast Newspaper Says Mice Will Be Fired Into Orbit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unofficial sources say the Air Force hopes to fire four mice into orbit around the earth today—and later recover them intact.

Western Aviation magazine stated: "Four mice will ride as passengers aboard a Discoverer II in a launch from Vandenberg Air Force Base with an attempt to be made for recovery of the payload capsule near Hawaii."

"The Los Angeles Examiner said the launching would possibly be today."

Air Force officials released no information.

If the mice do go aloft, they will be the first animals the United States has tried to shoot into space and recover.

Discoverer II was launched April 13 from Vandenberg, 150 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Air Force planes from Hawaii were poised to recover the satellite's payload capsule, but a timing device failed and the payload wasn't dropped until the satellite was over the arctic on its 17th pass.

American Pilot Crashes Into Barracks to Avoid Jap City

ASHIYA AIR BASE, Japan (AP)—The American pilot whose crippled transport plane crashed into a U. S. Air Force barracks Wednesday had banked the wrong way to avoid a Japanese town of 30,000 people.

The pilot and six other American servicemen died in the crash. Another airman was reported missing, and 13 were injured.

"The pilot who spared the nearby town of Ashiyamachi was the only fatality among the eight men aboard the giant turboprop C130. The other seven escaped with slight injuries."

The other casualties were men in the barracks.

The two-story, E-shaped barracks, housing 225 men but almost deserted at meal time, was leveled.

The 2½-million-dollar transport, coming in from Iwo Jima with one of its four turboprop engines dead, apparently approached too far down the runway and was rising for another try when it went out of control.

"The pilot in the usual flight pattern would have turned to the right when attempting to make another landing," said an operations officer, but this pilot turned left. He did it to avoid Ashiyamachi."

The plane crunched into the barracks, spewed exploding gasoline through the building, floundered briefly in the air, and then hit the ground in flames, 100 feet beyond.

Names of the dead were withheld.

Bride Discovers Wedding Was Joke

LOS ANGELES (AP)—

Pretty Anita June Jackson, 19, said that after their marriage ceremony her husband Rex, 25, left her.

She said that three days later he met her on the street, told her he had married her to win a bet at a party, and added: "Why worry? You're not hurt."

Mrs. Jackson's testimony won her an annulment.

Staggering Wind Blasts Galveston

GALVESTON, Texas (AP)—

Wind blasts that exceeded hurricane force ripped parts of Galveston today. Two fishermen were missing.

The storm struck from a line that spread destruction from near the Mexican border east to this coastal city.

Two men went to check their fishing lines near Galveston remained unreported late in the morning and were feared drowned.

The wind tore down an oversized sign, called a "spectacular" on Galveston's Pleasure Pier in the Gulf of Mexico.

Pier authorities said engineers inspected the sign three months ago and declared it would withstand winds of from 176 to 200 m.p.h.

The winds blew a tanker aground, sank a fishing vessel, virtually destroyed three homes, and caused widespread lesser destruction in Galveston and immediate vicinity.

Some residents said the storm descended in what they called a "big, black, rumbling cloud."

One resident on a Peninsula near Galveston declared "it definitely was a tornado."

"I heard it coming," said Mrs. Jerry Simpson of Port Bolivar. "It sounded like a jet plane. A house was picked up and a house near where I live was moved 40 feet."

Weather bureau men officially clocked winds at Galveston at 87 m.p.h., well over minimum hurricane force.

Carpenters Ask General Strike at the Cape

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—

Striking carpenters made a show of strength on picket lines today in their effort to stop all union activity at the missile test center.

The move appeared to have little initial success as workers of several unions streamed past the picket lines to report for early shifts at the launching area and Patrick Air Force Base.

A carpenter official said, however, the carpenters have called a meeting of business representatives of all unions for later today and that they will be formally asked then to take their men off the job.

If completely successful, a sympathy strike could affect 5,300 men.

Willard Van Hoose, Carpenters Union negotiator, also said the union rescinded its agreement allowing 1,500 Transport Workers and Teamsters Union workmen to cross picket lines to perform emergency missile work.

These two unions, plus 1,000 building tradesmen, honored the pickets when 115 carpenters struck Friday in a wage dispute with contractors.

Missile launchings have not been affected by the strike. But several million dollars worth of military construction is halted.

Divorcee and Her Boy Friend Die in Gunfire

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A

divorcee and her boy friend died in a blaze of gunfire in her apartment Wednesday night and police started looking for her former husband, an ex-convict.

Estelle Hamilton, 30, was killed with one shot from a .380 Magnum revolver. Lorenzo Bernard, 33, was fatally wounded.

Inspector Richard Young said police are seeking Raymond M. Hamilton, 37. He said witnesses gave police a description of an auto that sped away from the apartment.

SLAYER OF ELEVEN TO DIE FRIDAY

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Charles

Starkweather, scheduled to die in Nebraska's electric chair Friday, has spurned the idea of a final face-to-face meeting with his ex-sweetheart, Carl Ann Fugate.

"I asked him if he wanted to see her and he said no," the acting warden, John Greenholtz, reported. "In fact, he made it very emphatic that he didn't want to see her."

Starkweather, 20, an ex-garbage hauler, is scheduled to pay with his life shortly after 6 a.m. for one of 11 killings covered in his confessions.

Carl, 15, is serving a life term for aiding and abetting her boy friend during the murder rampage.

Starkweather, who has spent recent days reading the Bible and finishing a Western scene drawing, was convicted of slaying a Bennet, Neb. schoolboy.

Carl has contended she was a hostage of Charles in January of 1958 when three members of her family and seven other persons were killed.

But Starkweather testified at her trial that she was a willing accomplice.

Wednesday Carl asked Gov. Ralph Brooks to temporarily spare Starkweather's life so that she might talk with Charles and "he could have plenty of time to tell the truth" about her part in the slayings.

Brooks rejected the plea, commenting that he felt that if Starkweather had further information to relate he would have done so by this time.

In a letter to Starkweather, Carl begged him to "least confess to a minister that I am innocent so that I won't be the only one that knows I am innocent."

Starkweather and Carl were convicted of the slaying of Robert Jensen, 17, of Bennet. Killed with him was his girl friend, Carol King, 16, also of Bennet.

The bandy-legged redhead was tried on only one of the 11 deaths he admitted. Lancaster County Attorney Elmer Scheele gave no reason for selecting the Jensen case as the one on which to try Starkweather.

The first victims of the January killing spree were Carl's parents and stepister, Marion Bartlett, 57, of Lincoln, her stepfather; his 35-year-old wife, Velda, and Betty Jean Bartlett, 2.

Their bodies were found wrapped in rags in an outhouse behind the Bartlett home.

August Meyer, 70, a Bennet bachelor, young Jensen and Miss King were next.

The next three victims were C. Lauer Ward, 48, Lincoln business executive; his wife, Clara, 46, and their housekeeper, Lilyan Fencil, 51.

Sprens Enters Guilty Plea To Holdup In Ohio

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A 25-

year prison sentence stretches ahead for Frank L. Sprens, 29-year-old "flying bank robber."

He pleaded guilty Wednesday to $25,955 robbery of the First National Bank at Hamilton, Ohio, last March 2.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge John H. Druffel imposed the 25-year term. Then, in a surprise move, Sprens signed waivers to allow transfer here from Vermont, Pennsylvania and Maryland of federal charges of automobile and airplane thefts. He will be arraigned on those charges later.

Then comes a trial in Butler County, Ohio, for bank robbery in the Hamilton holdup. Still later, he'll stand trial in Summit County, Ohio, where he is wanted for armed robbery and jail breaking.

When all of those other charges are disposed of Sprens will start serving the 25-year term imposed Wednesday. Any sentences given him in the state courts will have to be served after the federal terms are completed.

During the long flight since his escape from the Summit County jail in Akron 13 months ago, Sprens has flitted from Toronto, through a score of states, and finally into Mexico where he was caught several weeks ago. He is known to have stolen at least three planes during that time.

Work Stops When Bulldozer Hits Gold

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A

Their days in the classrooms of Warren High School are rapidly drawing to a close for approximately 265 members of the senior class who will be receiving diplomas in the 82nd annual commencement exercises on Thursday, June 4.

Weather permitting, the graduation will take place on the lawn of Beatty Junior High School, starting at 8:00 p. m. Delivering the commencement address for 1959 will be Dr. Don McGary, professor of education at the Pennsylvania State University.

Also of more formal nature will be the baccalaureate service in Grace Methodist church at 8:00 p. m. Sunday, May 31, when the Rev. Reed J. Hurst, of Epworth Methodist church, will give the sermon. As usual, Warren High School A Cappella Choir will sing under the direction of Carroll A. Fowler.

Dems Fight To Prevent Cuts In Omnibus Measure

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP)—House

Democrats, riding high after an initial victory over administration forces, fought today to prevent cuts in their $2,100,000,000 omnibus bill.

On a key vote Wednesday, the House slapped down President Eisenhower's supporters by killing a proposed $1,300,000,000 substitute for the housing measure brought to the floor by House Banking Committee Democrats.

The vote was 203-177, with a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democratic conservatives on the losing side.

Some cuts below the amount proposed by the Banking Committee seemed likely before general passage, however.

The new public housing features of the measure were sure to come under especially sharp attack from many Democrats as well as Republicans. The bill would authorize 35,000 public housing units a year for four years. Neither the Eisenhower program nor the defeated substitute proposal provided for such structures.

There were GOP warnings that the Democratic measure faces a certain veto if it is enacted without change.

Major features of the Democratic bill, when the House started to work on it, included a three-year, 1½-billion-dollar program of slum elimination, 400 millions for college housing loans, 100 millions for housing for the elderly, 140,000 new units of public housing, and lower down payments on FHA home mortgages.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Two brothers were found dead Wednesday night in an unused refrigerator in the basement of their home. Paul Kelly, 11, and Edward Kelly, 4, were discovered by a sister, Pauline, during a family hunt for the missing boys. It was her 16th birthday.

Five Nurses Are Among Victims of Coast Collision

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP)

A contractor and five student nurses were killed Wednesday night in the crash of a pickup truck and an auto near this San Francisco Peninsula town. The pickup was without lights and in the wrong lane.

The truck driver was Warren P. Hamilton, 43, Los Altos.

The student nurses, all from St. Mary's Hospital, San Francisco, were Dolores Mae Goudreau, 20, Hayward, driver of the auto; Lois M. Wyrwa, 21, Helen Patricia Wilkinson, 20, and Shirley Jane Onetti, 22, all of San Francisco; and Nancy Joan Sullivan, 20, Roseburg, Ore.

Highway Patrolmen Duri Vital and Elwin Block said Hamilton, operator of the Hamilton Construction Co., Los Altos, was driving without lights southbound in the northbound lane of the freeway.

The pickup slammed head on into the auto and all occupants of both vehicles were killed instantly, the patrolmen reported.

Senate Committee Wants to Question Hoffa on Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—The

Senate Labor-Management Committee says it wants to hear first-hand James R. Hoffa's views on any retaliatory strike threat.

Hoffa, Teamsters Union president, denied Wednesday he had threatened a nationwide labor walkout if restrictive labor laws are passed by Congress. He was quoted as making such a threat in a speech Tuesday at Brownsville, Tex.

The committee said it wanted to question Hoffa in mid-June about corruption and ask him then under oath about plans for any such strike.

Hoffa told newsmen there nevertheless would be a nationwide strike of the Teamsters Union. However, a story in the current issue of Life magazine quotes him as saying, "We may eventually have to do what labor unions do in Europe and call general strikes."

A previously secret 11-point truce program was read Wednesday night to members of local 1199, Retail Drug Employees Union before balloting started.

Local President Leon J. Davis indicated the strike may spread to other hospitals.

The "memorandum of agreement," worked out with the aid of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, ruled out union recognition but provided for a grievance procedure in each hospital with a single arbitrator for all. His decision would be binding.

About 3,500 workers walked out of Mount Sinai, Beth Israel, Beth David, Lenox Hill, Bronx and Brooklyn Jewish hospitals May 8.

The hospitals have continued with the aid of volunteers.

Lutheran Ministerium Meets at Buck Hill

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa. (AP)

—Further discussion of proposals to declare racial discrimination in housing unconstitutional and to establish a "united fund" appeal were on today's agenda at the 212th annual convention of the Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania.

A Committee on Urban Church Activities urged Wednesday that the synod of 276,000 members go on record as favoring "inclusive residential patterns in order to stabilize our neighborhoods as integrated communities."

Long Spell of Hot Weather Shows No Signs of Breaking

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's longest spell of wet weather, with violent storms in some areas, showed no indication of a general breakup today in the Eastern half of the nation.

Severe wind storms hammered areas in the nation's mid-section and parts of the South Wednesday. One tornado struck a rural area in southern Iowa, injuring five members of one family. Funnel clouds were spotted in central and eastern Kansas.

Tornado winds lashed sections of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri. Torrential rains caused floods in some sections of the Midwest wet belt, including Iowa.

Illinois, Wisconsin and Nebraska. Winds ranging up to from 70 to more than 80 m.p.h. swept across the midlands as thunderstorms erupted with the clashing of warm and cool air. Hail fell in many areas.

The storms caused extensive property damage.

Parts of Florida were soaked by heavy rain. Nearly 5 inches fell in the Jacksonville area and a three-hour downpour at Ruskin measured 4 inches.

In the Midwest, Lake Mills, Iowa, reported 3.36 inches of rain in an hour. Flash floods were reported at Spencer, in northwest Iowa, after more than 6 inches of rain.

IMPORTANCE IS ATTACHED TO DINNER

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will meet with the other Big Four foreign ministers tonight at a dinner which could prove a turning point in the negotiations over a summit conference agreement.

Some high diplomats attached great importance to the dinner, though it is billed as purely social.

British and French officials said the assembly of 12 top men of the Big Four conference at Herter's villa offered an opportunity to get away from the repetitive formal debate of the regular sessions and come to grips with basic problems.

They even spoke of a possible series of such social affairs as a means of swinging the conference into more private negotiations.

U.S. officials, however, attempted to dampen growing interest in the dinner. They said there was no thought beforehand on Herter's part of trying to get any conference work done or to promote any secret diplomacy.

Officials of all three Western delegations conceded that it was literally impossible to predict ahead of time what would happen because Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko might create an opening or make a move which they cannot anticipate.

Gromyko is already beginning to prod the three Western ministers into letting them know what their terms are for agreement on a summit conference. Herter, Britain's Selwyn Lloyd and Maurice Couve de Murville of France are reported playing hard to get, chiefly because France and West Germany — meaning President Charles de Gaulle and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer — have insisted this is the best bargaining line to take.

The debate on contradictory Soviet and Western German peace plans is continuing but getting nowhere in the main conference sessions. The question all four big-power delegations are now worrying about is how and when to start secret negotiations.

Non-Professional Hospital Workers Continue Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—Non-

professional workers at six hospitals have voted overwhelmingly—1,784 to 14—to continue their 14-day-old walkout in a bid to win union recognition.

Former Resident Retiring After 33 Years as An Auto Salesman in Syracuse, N. Y.

Area residents will be extremely interested to learn that after June 1, former Warren resident, Clare C. Russell of Syracuse, N. Y., one time principal of Sugar Grove Township High School at Chancellers Valley, will retire with his partner, Jerome B. Rusterholtz, after 33 years in the automobile business.

Mr. Russell's principalship extended from 1909 to 1914, at which time he moved to Warren and operated the Ford and Overland Agency at 14 South Carver street. Late in 1914, his brother, Merle Russell, 318 Fifth avenue east, who taught school at Lander for 8 years, joined him in business and the firm was known as Russell Brothers.

Two years later the brothers built the block on Pennsylvania avenue, east, where NAT Motors, DeSoto-Plymouth dealers, is presently located.

In 1918, the Overland Agency moved to the block where the present Chevrolet Agency is located and Jerome Rusterholtz became manager. The partners moved to Syracuse in 1922.

For Russell, the retirement climaxes a 46-year career of merchandising automobiles. Rusterholtz has been selling automobiles for 43 years, having started his career while a student at Allegheny College.

Their departure from the dealership does not mean that the two partners are retiring. In addition to the dealership, they own an automobile finance company and have real estate holdings. Both will remain active in these fields.

Clare Russell and his brother-in-law, Jerome Rusterholtz, are stepping out of the automobile field, because they feel their long service warrants a rest.

"It's a young man's business," was the way Rusterholtz expressed it. Russell added, "We have served our time—putting in 12 to 18 hours a day for many, many years."

Merle Russell, retired for the past three years, is an ardent golfer, devoting most pleasant spring and summer days on the Conewango Valley Country Club course.

Boy Scout County Fair Is Declared Most Successful

William Muir, general chairman for the Boy Scout County Fair held last week-end at the Youngsville Fair Grounds, reported that the event was successfully carried out. In making his report to the executive board of the Chief Complanter Council, Mr. Muir said that he was very gratified at the response of the more than 30 Scout units that braved the cold and rain to present their exhibits.

Mr. Muir reported that Boy Scout participation in the Fair was equal to or greater than last year. "The quality and diversity of the various booth exhibits were extremely good," he said. Although public attendance was off from last year's event those who were present did enjoy the various aspects of the Fair.

Highlights of the Boy Scout Fair included a very interesting exhibition by a group of older boys from neighboring Bradford Council who presented a number of authentic Indian dances. Following these dances on Friday evening the Complanter Pageant was put on by the Cubs and Scouts of Youngsville.

Saturday afternoon a presentation of "Custer's Last Stand" was staged by Cub Pack 11 of Warren. This was followed by the second performance of the Complanter Pageant. Unfortunately the pageant had to be called off before being completed because of rain.

An interesting international note was added by the presence of the 1st St. James Troop of Simcoe. The Troop of Canadian Scouts arrived early Saturday morning and camped on the site. They provided the Warren Scouts as well as the public with the opportunity to compare Scouting notes.

Mr. Muir expressed his thanks to the many persons who helped to present the Boy Scout County Fair; the members of his committee, the Borough of Youngsville, Kiwanis Club, Volunteer Fire Company, Civil Defense, Sunray, Girl Scouts, and the many, many others whose services were so willingly offered to make the event a success.

King of Belgium Lets Hair Down In Movieland

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Baudouin, the 28-year-old bachelor King of the Belgians, has let his royal hair down on his current visit to the United States.

Seldom has a visiting monarch so charmed the people he met. Aides said the slender King began to loosen up a bit in Texas. "I'm sorry I didn't get here when it was still the biggest state," he said. Still, his visit to the movie capital Tuesday started off stiff and formal. But the royal aloofness cracked by the time he met Frank Sinatra and Gina Lollobrigida.

He and Miss Lollobrigida conversed in French and when a reporter asked him what he thought of the sexy Italian star, he made a noise with his teeth that could only be interpreted as a Belgian refinement of the wolf whistle.

At a luncheon, Baudouin's partner was actress Debbie Reynolds, who kept up a running conversation with him. She was later astonished to hear that he sometimes is called Baudouin the Silent by Belgians.

"I never met a more charming man," said Debbie.

Later the same night, he attended a party at the home of a Hollywood director, where he danced until 1:40 a.m. with Miss Reynolds, Maria Cooper, daughter of Gary, and Cyd Charisse.

At Disneyland the following day, the King really had a ball. He rode in the engineer's cab of the Santa Fe and Disneyland Railroad that traverses a diorama of the Grand Canyon, and took the helm of the Mississippi River stern-wheeler — and even sounded the steam whistle.

Farm Work in State Hampered By Bad Weather

HARRISBURG (AP) — Activity last week on Pennsylvania farms was hampered by rainy weather, but by week's end farmers were able to resume field work in southern and central counties.

The State Crop Reporting Service's weekly roundup Wednesday said:

"Barley is starting to head in the south and southeast. The condition of the crop is still generally poor and hasn't recovered from the damage occurring during the winter.

"Wheat throughout most of the south is thick and tall and has a good color. However, in some areas of the north and central it is rather spotty.

"Keystone farmers continued to plant corn where weather permitted. About a third of the crop is now planted. The earlier planted corn in the south is coming up.

"Oats in general are growing well throughout the state and the condition of the crop is good.

"Cutting hay for green silage is under way in the southeast. Hay throughout the state is making good growth and is of generally good quality. Pastures are making good growth and quality is good throughout most of the state.

"Cherries and peaches have set fruit in the south and are starting to size.

"Setting of tomatoes in south and central regions continued during the week when weather permitted. Those already planted are started nicely.

"Peas for processing are growing well. Cultivation of early potatoes has started in the east central and southeastern counties."

"Kill Now, Pay Later" Plot at South Pasadena

SOUTH PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — An electronics engineer was arrested Wednesday night and accused of plotting a "kill now, pay later" conspiracy to eliminate a love rival.

Police said Arthur Herbert Reiser Smith, 50, of Pasadena, had turned over the second of two $250 payments and a promissory note for $1,500 to Charles Hitchcock Johnston, 41, also of Pasadena.

Smith was booked in the county jail on suspicion of soliciting another person to commit murder.

Johnston, who described himself as an ex-soldier of fortune, told police Smith hired him to kill another man he said was alienating a girl friend's affections.

BUY AND WEAR A POPPY

Announcing its annual Poppy Days on Friday and Saturday of this week, and asking the support of all in the community, Chief Cornplanter Unit 135, American Legion Auxiliary, reminds that the little red flowers are made by disabled Veterans and all funds realized from their sale are used for veterans' rehabilitation and welfare work.

Work of Making the poppies begins in the summer or fall and, throughout the spring and winter months, disabled soldiers of all wars make the flowers in government hospitals. This work is a godsend to many of the men. They are paid for each flower made; this money providing them with many necessities and comforts not provided by the hospitals. The need is described as pitiful; the men eager to help themselves.

Only once a year are friends asked to buy an American Legion Memorial Poppy, made by veterans of three wars, and the local unit asks that "we keep these men busy making the bright red petals and, in this way, make their long and monotonous hours seem shorter. There is no fixed price for their sale, the children's pennies and the business man's dollars being equally acceptable. Let us all honor our dead heroes and help our disabled veterans by buying and wearing a Poppy on the 1959 Poppy Days."

Attention is called to the fact that special services will be held this evening in the citadel in Times Square in observance of National Salvation Army Week. The program will be under the direction of Major James H. Dihle. The record of the Salvation Army entitles it to consideration as a "must" organization—in the sense that it must receive and richly deserves community support. This special Week is a good time for citizens to make known their appreciation of the services rendered in the last fifty years.

Governor David L. Lawrence has issued a statement designating the period May 18 through May 23 as "Aviation Cadet Week" in Pennsylvania, urging citizens to observe the week by being cognizant of the Aviation Cadet Program, and "of our necessity in maintaining the highest degree of combat readiness and effectiveness of the United States Air Force."

Would be appreciated by users of the structure if proper authorities would take steps to enforce a "no parking" restriction on the Hickory street bridge and approaches thereto!

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This Congress—as congresses go—is no fireball. Its work for the year so far is about par for the course: in mid-May a few pieces of major legislation finished, a lot more pending.

Congresses usually wind up in a rush in the last few weeks before gutting in midsummer. This one can be expected to do the same. If there's any surprise this year, it's this:

Relations between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress are still pretty gentle. Except for demanding that the Democrats keep down spending to balance his budget, he hasn't tried to use a whip.

There were guesses earlier this year—after the Democrats got overwhelming control of both houses in the 1958 elections—that they would take things into their own hands and romp over Eisenhower.

Particularly they complained early that he was asking far too little money to meet what they considered the country's needs. But his repeated demands for economy, which he made a major issue, seem to have chilled them a bit.

The one time they tried to rough him up—by hitting him with a bill they thought they could pass even over his veto—he knocked them flat, vetoed the bill, and made it stick.

This was when they tried to take some power away from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. This was not really a money bill at all. It would have taken from Benson his present power to veto loans by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Eisenhower's veto was the 138th he had made stick since taking office in 1953, without a single upset.

It may have forced the Democrats into more modest notions about pushing him around. But it's too soon to say.

The Democrats already are flitting with another veto, this time on a housing bill.

Other tests may lie ahead on airport aid and aid to depressed areas, for which pending bills passed by one or both branches exceed Eisenhower's proposals.

But the current fight is over housing.

Earlier this year Eisenhower proposed a $1,600,000,000 housing program. This was cut-rate stuff to the Democrats. So the Senate passed a $2,600,000,000 bill and sent it to the House.

There, after knocking down a Republican attempt Wednesday to get approval for a $1,300,000,000 bill, House Democrats went on to consider a $2,100,000,000 measure. That is 500 million dollars more than Eisenhower asked and 500 millions less than the Senate thought necessary.

No matter what kind of bill the House finally passes, if it's different from the one which got through the Senate, no bill can reach Eisenhower until both houses reconcile their differences and agree on one bill in all details.

Already the House Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, has warned the Democrats that even if the House bill gets passed in its present form, Eisenhower will veto it.

And the Democrats have no reason to think they can override this veto, either, after what happened on the last one.

Here and There

In the traffic category, the accidents that don't happen, the lives that aren't lost, are never news. But a workable approach to traffic safety—and one that is growing—should be news, wonderfully good news. Last year, more than 300,000 boys and girls in over 2,000 communities across the nation contested in the Teen-age Road-e-o, the national Jaycee safe-driving event for fun, for glory and for high rewards. With the opening of entries for the seventh annual running of the Road-e-o this year, indications point to greater enthusiasm, more entries and more communities represented than ever before. Warren Jaycees are completing plans for the local Road-e-o to be staged at the Lexington avenue Sylvania Parking lot Saturday, May 23rd. Teen-agers who will not attain the age of 19 before August 13th, and who can qualify for a driver's license, are eligible. For a chance to demonstrate driving skill, understanding of traffic rules and common sense in competition for state honors, a trip to Washington to participate in the National Finals August 10-13, and a chance at a cash scholarship of $2,000, $1,500 or $1,000, these boys and girls should enroll at their local Junior Chamber of Commerce. Co-sponsored by the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, the American Trucking Association, Inc., Chrysler Corporation and Pure Oil Company, the Teen-age Road-e-o has become not only one of the most popular youth activities in the nation but a mighty force for highway safety, leadership and good citizenship throughout the 49 states, Hawaii (just voted the 50th) and the District of Columbia. Law enforcement officers, safety engineers, educators and countless other civic-minded citizens concerned both with the welfare of young people and traffic safety in the years immediately ahead cooperate with the Jaycees in staging this important annual event at local, state and national levels, in administering written exams and psycho-physical tests and in planning and judging the actual driving skill and competence. For some measure of the nation's debt to the Jaycees for their inspired idea of the Safe-Driving Teen-age Road-e-o, we might consider that there are on the roads today half a million or more former contestants, who are proved safe and sane drivers. Let's have more of them.

Due to the excitement incident to the election, along with a severe attack of spring fever, we almost overlooked the fact that the period May 17 to 23 has been designated as National Retail Bakers' Week, in recognition of which Governor David L. Lawrence, in a proclamation, lauded retail bakers for their contribution to the health and enjoyment of the people of Pennsylvania. At the signing R. F. Dunkelberger, president of the Pennsylvania Bakers Association advised the Governor that the purpose of commemorating the Week was chiefly to pay tribute to the community retail bakers, acquainting homemakers and the public in general with the important part their neighborhood baker plays in our society. Quietly, busy in his shop from early dawn to dusk, the retail baker and his highly skilled craftman helpers, produce the great variety of breads, cakes and pastries, which have helped to give the American women more time to devote to their family, church, school and community activities. The high nutritional quality of baked foods available at the stores today have contributed immeasurably to the health of the people of America, to the high standard of living our nation enjoys. The enrichment of the "staff of life" with important vitamins, during the last 15 years, provides our daily bread with a level of nutrition never attained before. While retail bakers in Pennsylvania gross over $125 million in sales a year, they still work as skilled craftsmen taking pride in their ability to make many varieties of quality baked foods, on an individual basis. Employing more than 18,000 workers and salesladies, they represent a substantial part of Pennsylvania's baking industry, which ranks first among all food industries in number of people employed and total annual payroll.

A.D.A. Not Conservative; Nation's Only Catching Up

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Something of a change in Americans for Democratic Action was apparent in its 12th annual convention here.

The organization is still damned in the South for its uncompromising stand on civil rights, its support of the Supreme Court decisions on integration, its advocacy of increased voting rights and civil liberties for all.

But the old charges that A.D.A. was "soft on communism" and that it constituted the "radical left wing" of the Democratic party are seldom heard any more.

These criticisms were usually made by people who gave A.D.A. credit for having more power in the Democratic party than it really had. It was always a minority movement.

In the 1958 elections, no candidate complained because he got A.D.A. support. In previous elections, an A.D.A. endorsement was considered a political kiss of death.

SEVERAL THINGS MAY have happened to give A.D.A. a different cast today. Establishment of the Democratic Advisory Council by the Democratic party's National Committee chairman, Paul Butler, has stolen a lot of A.D.A. thunder.

Democratic Advisory Council statements are today stronger criticism of the G.O.P. than anything A.D.A. issues.

Also, A.D.A. today gets less than 20 per cent of its support from organized labor. When A.D.A. was first founded in 1947, it got 45 per cent of its support from the unions.

One reason for this change is that the labor movement now has its own political action organizations.

A.D.A. membership has grown steadily but not sensationally. Today it boasts only 45,000 dues-paying members.

THEY ARE CLASSIFIED roughly as being 20 per cent from labor, 15 per cent from academic circles including students, 15 per cent business and professional people, another 15 per cent federal, state and local government employees, the other 35 per cent scattered political independents.

A.D.A. still maintains it is an "independent liberal organization" supporting liberals in both parties. In its convention here, A.D.A. resolutions were almost as critical of the Democratic-controlled 86th Congress as they were of GOP and the administration.

Democratic leaders in Congress were criticized for running a "do-nothing" session and for failing to carry out 1958 election mandates for a more liberal program.

THE EISENHOWER ADMINISTRATION was criticized for failure to promote full employment and economic growth. There was some support for budget balancing as such, but not at the expense of needed development in housing, urban renewal, health and education.

A.D.A. backed the foreign aid program. There was a sheaf of resolutions critical of past foreign policy moves. But there was warm support for new Secretary of State Herter.

Robert R. Nathan of Washington, retiring A.D.A. chairman, thinks the organization is now, only about 5 per cent ahead of the march of U.S. progress.

"If either the Republican or Democratic party should become truly liberal," says Nathan, "A.D.A. would probably go out of business." Yet today he sees A.D.A. "still performing a useful function as a goad to keep on the liberal track."

The man chosen to succeed Nathan and direct its planning for the 1960 campaigns is Samuel H. Beer, 48, a shy but astute Rhodes scholar and Harvard professor of political science.

How to Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

SEVERE REACTIONS TO BEE STINGS

Many persons are allergic to insects and after being stung display large hive-like swelling that itch intensely. Prompt relief can be obtained with a lotion or cream containing hydrocortisone or an antihistaminic substance.

A few individuals are ultra-sensitive and develop a generalized reaction that offers a serious emergency. Death may ensue unless the condition is recognized and treated promptly. Itching occurs within a few minutes after being stung. The area breaks out with hives, the lips and eyelids swell, and the chest feels tight. These persons gasp for breath, wheeze, and feel faint. Some lapse into shock or unconsciousness.

Anyone who has gone through an experience of this nature ought to be desensitized against insect bites. Extracts of honey bee, wasp, hornet, and yellow jacket are available. Injections of epinephrine or one of the antihistaminic drugs or steroid hormones give temporary relief.

Those who suffer severe reactions to insect stings are few and far between. Dr. Robert A. and Dr. Robert F. E. Stier of Spokane learned this when they decided to evaluate a vaccine against insect reactions.

Over a five year period they saw 18 patients who were hypersensitive. Fifteen of this group were desensitized, only seven were stung again. This obviously was a poor follow-up even though the seven who were bitten appeared to be protected.

These physicians decided to write their colleagues suggesting pooling of information on the efficacy of the vaccines. In time, 63 case reports were obtained. Of 23 persons stung after receiving the vaccine, 18 were completely protected, five received partial relief, and only one was not helped.

These results are good enough to add desensitization to our present methods of dealing with insects. We have excellent insecticides and repellents as well as products that offer temporary relief of sting symptoms. I am still searching for that magic pill a person can take to discourage all insects from coming close.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

VITAMIN DEFICIENCIES

W. R. writes: How can we tell if we lack vitamins in our system?

REPLY

There are blood tests for certain vitamins which could serve as an index of dietary adequacies. On the other hand, most physicians delve into this problem by looking for outward manifestations of deficiencies and by studying the diet. It generally is agreed that a healthy person who is receiving a well rounded diet is getting all the vitamins the body needs.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—With a good first half of the year now all but in the bag for many industries, their leaders are beginning to offer predictions on second half prospects.

Mostly they add up to further gains in sales and profits—but at a much slower rate. Most look for a business slowdown in the summer, which may be troubled by strikes, but a good recovery in the fall.

Firmness in prices is forecast for a number of industries. But some of the soothsayers see a further decline in the purchasing power of the dollar as wages will tend to rise.

With the second half just six weeks away, and summer's debut just a month from today, let's look at some of the specific predictions.

Albert L. Nickerson, president of Socony Mobil Oil, thinks his industry has already seen its best earnings gains of the year. He reminds his shareholders that second-half profits will be compared with the recovery months of 1958, while current earnings are compared with recession figures. But he sees the year as a whole topping 1958.

F. O. Prior, chairman of Indiana Standard Oil, is specific. He thinks second half profits will run about five per cent ahead of 1958, domestic demand for oil products about three per cent ahead, demand for domestic crude oil eight per cent ahead. He sees product prices fluctuating only seasonally.

L. L. Colbert, Chrysler president, sees a continuing comeback for the auto industry. He credits the general disappearance of the mood of indecision, based on recession fears, which haunted the public last year.

H. E. Humphreys Jr., U.S. Rubber chairman, sees the second half likely to trail the first half, but with a strong upturn in the final months. He thinks employment in his industry will drop in the summer but be on the upturn near the end of the year.

Little change in good prices is forecast by W. B. Murphy, Campbell Soup president. He says the food industry as a whole looks for a healthy second half, but with only modest gains in sales and profits.

Robert J. McKim, president of Associated Dry Goods, says the favorable trend of retail sales will continue through the fall. The reason: Record highs in personal incomes and savings, which put the public in position to buy.

R. S. Reynolds Jr., president of Reynolds Metals, sees a promising second half for the economy in general. His own industry should see a firming up of prices and a rising demand for its products, especially in overseas markets.

Home building will continue at the present rate, in the opinion of H. C. Turner Jr., president of Turner Construction Co. But he doubts if there'll be any further increase in the rate, because mortgage money is likely to tighten.

New Vocal Groups In Scholarship Benefit

Next Tuesday evening, beginning at eight o'clock in the Junior High School auditorium, Byron L. Swanson will present from his studios four new voice organizations in a concert of delightful choral music. Featured will be the Warren Girl Choir, Second Girl Choir, Warren Ladies' Ensemble, and the Warren Mixed Voice Ensemble.

All four groups have been organized as new projects this year, and many friends in the Warren area will welcome the opportunity to hear them in their first public concert. The two girl choirs appeared only briefly at Christmas-time in conjunction with the annual Warren Boy Choir Concert in Grace Methodist church.

Each of the four groups will appear separately in choral compositions, and at least one soloist will be selected from each.

The concert is to be in the form of a benefit for the newly-formed Dr. LeRoy B. Campbell Piano Scholarship Fund, and all proceeds will be used for this purpose.

In keeping with the life and work of the man for whom the fund has been established, Pittsburgh's young and talented pianist, John Specht, will be heard as guest soloist.

Tickets are on sale from all choral members and will be available at the auditorium doors on Tuesday evening.

Trinity Youth Going To Diocesan Meeting

Young people of Trinity Memorial Episcopal Church will travel to Bradford Saturday and Sunday to join other groups from the parishes and missions of the 13-county Episcopal Diocese of Erie, who will gather for an annual two-day convention.

Those who have signed up for the meeting are Edward Ball, Bruce McCarty, George Mattison, Jr., David Thomson and Jerry Sheppard.

Registration will take place from noon till 3:00 p. m. in church of the Ascension parish house followed by a two hour business session.

The Rt. Rev. William Gritten-den, Bishop of Erie, will address the group at a dinner at Penn-hills Club Saturday evening. Guest speaker for the afternoon will be the Rev. Richard T. S. Brown of the Pennsylvania State Parole Board at Harrisburg.

Many other Diocesan priests familiar to local young people will also be in attendance, and following the Saturday night address, officers will be elected with dancing to conclude the evening.

Celebration of Holy Communion will be held at the church at 8:00 a. m. Sunday. Breakfast for visitors will be held at The Emery Hotel at 9:00 where final work of the convention will be conducted to end with an informal luncheon at the parish house at 1:00 p. m.

Counseling Is Major Project For Agency

The Family Service and Children's Aid Society of Warren County completed a year of continuing growth and progress, highlighted by the growing acceptance of the idea of marriage counseling, it was reported by Miss Katherine Knapp, executive director, in her annual report to the board of directors.

Her report outlined that the Society has served Warren County in the following ways this past year: Premarital and marital counseling; protective service to children; aid to unmarried mothers; counseling of disturbed children and adults.

Probably the most encouraging development, Miss Knapp said, has been the acceptance of the idea of marriage counseling. As more people learn of the agency's service in this area, the Society hopes to help more and more married people with problems.

The executive director reported that during the year the agency, one of the oldest and most experienced social agencies in Northwestern Pennsylvania, began a policy of earliest possible adoption placement. Already the average age of placement for adoption, has been reduced by 11 months, Miss Knapp disclosed.

In the future, the agency hopes to develop a means of locating and offering service to more unmarried pregnant girls. In addition, the agency must concentrate on the continued lowering of the placement age of adopted children.

Mrs. P. E. Harrington, president of the Society, expressed her thanks to the staff for a year of excellent work, enthusiastically and efficiently administered. She also expressed her appreciation to Dr. John Larson, whose interest and work enables the Society to carry out a thorough health program.

Hundreds of Northern Area Grade School Pupils in Spring Festival

Approximately 350 students of Northern Area Joint Elementary Schools participated in the Spring Music Festival presented before a capacity audience gathered in Eisenhower High School auditorium.

For a delightful program based around a "Storyland" theme, third grades from Lander, Sugar Grove and Russell introduced the first story, "The Raggletaggle Town Singers," with a special group singing "Traveling Through Storyland."

Following an interlude, "Frog Went A-Courting," by the Fifth Grade Chorus, the first grades of Sugar Grove and Lander appeared in another story, "The Gingerbread Man."

Flutophones were featured in the next portion of the program, with three different groups representing all the schools and playing such selections as "Long Ago," "The Bee and the Pup," "Mother Goose Medley," "Children's Marching Song," and others. One group played numbers featured in the County Chorus Concert.

The final story, "Hansel and Gretel," with music from the opera by Humperdunk, was enacted by the fifth grades, with the following children taking the principal parts:

Gretel—Doris Way; Hansel—Bruce Lindquist; Mother—Jane North; Father—John Briggs; Sandman—Noble Livezey; Witch—Dorothy Spangler; narrators, Becky Deemer, Karen Tanian and James Stanton.

Dramatizing the other two stories were these pupils: Gingerbread Man—Adolph Morando, Barbara Hagberg, Charles Brown, Patricia Baron, John Aldrich, Marshal Mikrut, Gary Gouphey, Sharon Bush, Kris Thorpe and Greg Forsgren, with Judy Hagberg as narrator.

Raggletaggle Town Singers—Douglas Retterer, Virgil Spicer, Barbara Gantz and Larry Thompson, with Rosemary Christianson as narrator.

The program was directed by Mary Mangus, music instructor, with the help of the following teachers: Caribelle Swanson, Della Anderson, Edna Sechrist, Lorraine Waite, Dorothy Briggs, Margaret Cable, Margaret Duell, Ruth Solinger, Evelyn Cooper, Richard Hiles, Blanche McKinnin, Harriet Northrop, Mary O'Donnel, and Evelyn Prettyman.

Pleasant Township Brownies Honor Mothers at Dinner-Entertainment

The first annual dinner of Pleasant Township Brownies and their mothers proved a very enjoyable affair this week. Thirty Brownies, most of their mothers and a few younger brothers and sisters enjoyed a tasty planned-tureen and the Brownie program which followed.

Mrs. Kenneth Cole offered grace and the Brownie leader, Mrs. Rex Confer, welcomed the mothers, offering an explanation of the troop's progress, activities and problems. After announcing the Brownie picnic on the South Side playground Wednesday and the Brownie Pow-Wow at Camp Birdsall Edey May 25, Mrs. Confer presented the special guests and Brownie workers.

Mrs. James Pierce, president of the sponsoring Pleasant Volunteer Fire Auxiliary; Mrs. Robert Schumann, area troop counselor and former Scout leader; Mrs. Michael Mikan, chairman, and the troop committee, Mrs. Max Crosby, Mrs. F. H. Schaeffer, Mrs. Earl Nobles, Mrs. M. E. Burleigh, Mrs. John Morrison, Mrs. Glenn Haight, with Mrs. Kenneth Cole and Mrs. Walter Pring, Jr., Brownie leaders.

For the program, a tap routine was given by Karen Chudo, Stephanie Mikan and Susan Schumann; Parade of the Brownies, the entire troop, with the Misses Chudo and Mikan twirling batons and Lynn Pollock serving as marshal; group singing, "The Little Red Schoolhouse," led by Cindy Pring; exercise song, led by Rebecca Keyvinski.

Third-year Brownies, Vicki

Kitelinger, June Jackson, Sandy Gern, Cindy Pring, Rebecca Keyvinski, Karen Chudo, Lynn Pollock and Stephanie Mikan, were given their "wings" by their leader and presented to Mrs. Schumann for investiture as Scouts. In their three years, they have completed Tenderfoot requirements of the Girl Scout Manual.

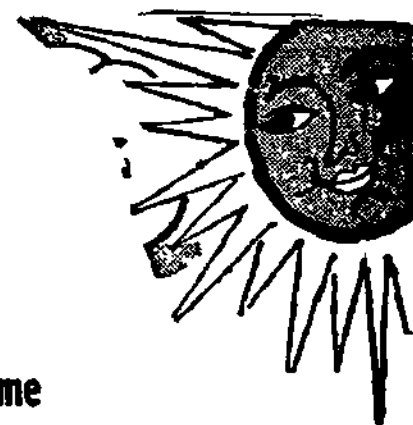

Mrs. Schumann and girls from the Sixth Grade Patrol of Pleasant Troop 51 conducted the impressive candle-lighting ceremony, the former presenting Scout pins and commending the leaders.

Next was "Woody Woodpecker's Animal Talent Show," staged by seven and eight year old girls in charge of Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Pring. Barbara Salpek was a happy Woody and the "animals" were as follows:

Three Pigs—Susan Confer, Marjorie Cole and Debby Anderson; Spuitrel—Kathryn Stewart; Billy Goat—Virginia Morrison; Platapus—Susan Schumann; Kitty-cat—Lynn Nobles; Talking Dog—Judy Crosby; Fishes—Fatty Pring, Jane Schaeffer, Shelly Stanko, Catherine Gnage; Hedgehog—Patsy Haight; Looney, the Loon/Teresa dra Farrell, Connie Johnson, Shelle Burleigh, Darlene Chase; Mum-bug—Judy Yeagie; Wally Walrus—Susan Bennett.

In conclusion, the Brownies sang "Day Is Done."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson, Scandia, were honored Sunday in observance of their golden wedding anniversary, with afternoon and evening open house held at the family home.

Mrs. Anderson chose for the happy occasion a navy blue print frock, with which she wore a corsage of yellow roses; Mr. Anderson had a yellow rose for his lapel, both being gifts from their children.

Aides included their granddaughters, Carolyn Sequist, Joan and Shirley Anderson, with Rodney Anderson, a grandson, in charge of the guest book.

Highlights of the afternoon for the couple were telephone calls from two grandchildren, Betty Ann Sequist, from Tampa, Fla., and Larry Anderson, with the Army at Aberdeen, Md. There were many other telephone calls, cards and gifts for the honored ones.

Anniversary Event

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Van Ord, Jr., were pleasantly surprised Sunday, when family and friends, numbering about 60, gathered for open house to mark their 35th wedding anniversary.

The Van Ords were married May 17, 1924 at the First Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Jamestown, N. Y., and reside on Russell-Lander road, where Mr. Van Ord has been engaged in farming for the last 30 years. They are parents of the following children: Lewis George and Coia E. of Akeley; Stewart R. and Howard, of Warren; Virginia Kiffer, Tonesta RD; and Ronald L. Clanton State Teachers' College.

The bride of 35 years received her guests in a pink linen sheath, accented with lace insert, accessories in a matching shade and a white carnation corsage. Mr. Van Ord was remembered with a white carnation boutonniere.

The large decorated cake centered a white and silver table and was flanked by yellow tapers in silver holders. Miss Cora Van Ord, youngest daughter of the couple, served the cake; Mrs. Stewart Van Ord, Warren, was at the punch bowl; at the silver coffee service was Mrs.

Lewis G. Van Ord, Akeley RD, and Mrs. Van Ord Kiffer, Tonesta RD 2, was in charge of the guest book. Aides were Mrs. James Dalrymple, Jamestown RD; Mrs. Charles Baran and Mrs. Bert Van Ord, Sugar Grove, Mrs. Gid Van Ord, Akeley.

The honored ones received many lovely cards and gifts for their home, along with a purse of money from relatives and friends in attendance from Jamestown and Busti, N. Y.; Erie, Tonesta, Warren, Clarendon, Sugar Grove, Clanton and Akeley.

INSTALLATION MEETING FOR YOUNGVILLE PTA

YOUNGVILLE—A good attendance was present at the PTA installation meeting Monday evening. Following the Lord's Prayer and the Flag Salute, Mrs. Lorraine Brooks installed the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. George Walter; vice president, Mrs. Don Aichald; secretary, Mrs. John Coons; treasurer, Donald Barron.

Mr. Sherwood acted as moderator for a panel discussion on "What Can You Expect From Your PTA?" In behalf of the students, Manfred Rydholm, teacher; Janet Henry, parents; Lewis Crippen and for the PTA Mrs. Richard Geigerich each gave their own views on the subject, followed by an interesting question and answer period.

An instructive film on fluoridation was presented and, under the direction of Harvey Horn, the junior choir sang two numbers.

Refreshments were served by a committee of second grade mothers Mrs. Donald Barron, Mrs. Cleon Woods, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson.

Community Is Urged To Support Jaycee's Concert Series Campaign

"Any town the size of Warren is always just one step away from being a cultural ghost town," declared Dr. Laurence Krespan today in urging the people of Warren to support the 1959-60 Concert Series being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He pointed out that all cultural offerings in small towns require a higher percentage of support from the people than the same attractions in larger cities and added, "It is important that we maintain such things as the Concert Series or else we will soon find that our community's cultural life consists solely of television, movies and magazines."

The Concert Series membership committee, composed of Jaycees and interested citizens, is conducting an all-member canvass, selling memberships for next season's concerts. Season tickets can also be purchased by sending a check for the number of tickets desired along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Jaycee Concert Series, Box 147, Warren. Tickets will be forwarded by return mail. Krespan emphasized that absolutely no individual tickets will be sold for the separate concerts. Only season ticket holders will be admitted.

An unusually glittering array of talent has been assembled for next year's Series, to be brilliantly launched October 9 with an appearance by the internationally-acclaimed Roberto Iglesias Spanish Ballet Troupe under the management of Sol Hurok. With the decline of Jose Greco as the major dance personality from Spain, dynamic, young Roberto Iglesias has rapidly risen to the top. With a company of 20, Iglesias literally took the country by storm during his first cross-country tour last year.

Variety, show business zible, wrote, "Iglesias is an inflammatory talent and has surrounded himself with excellent dancers. Such terms as elemental, dynamic, earthy, sexy apply to the start and his choreography." Review after review has echoed and topped these sentiments.

Other tentative concerts for the Series include an appearance by the gifted American-Israeli pianist Stanley Babin and a unique recital by the Bel Canto Trio, which is composed of outstanding young singers. The fourth concert will be presented by Warren Civic Orchestra.

BROWNIE PICNIC

The closing picnic for Pleasant Brownie Troop 78, accompanied by some of the mothers and several guests, was held Wednesday afternoon in Crescent Park. Games and an early picnic supper were followed by presentation of a gift to the retiring Brownie leader, Mrs. Rex Confer, from the senior Brownie Patrol.

Appreciation is extended the Borough Park Department for arranging picnic facilities. Mothers and leaders on hand to serve the 31 Brownies and their friends were Mrs. Walter Pring, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Cole, Mrs. Max Crosby, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. John Pollock, Mrs. Rex Confer.

CALVARY YOUTH SPONSORS BANQUET

Ticket reservations may be made with Don McKelvey, Kay Holmberg, Trudy Chase or Paul Holmberg at the high school. Reservations deadline is Monday, May 15.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A great variety of bargains are on tap this week for food shoppers.

Steak, chuck roast, leg of lamb, fryers, shrimp and eggs — all are listed as the No. 1 attraction in the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores. This gives the shopper a choice at both ends of the economic scale. Steak or shrimp at the top, chuck or fryers at the bottom and lamb somewhere in between.

Egg bargains are just about everywhere. Producer prices are the lowest in 18 years. Representatives of 34 farm, poultry and food trade groups met with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson this week to discuss an accelerated merchandising program.

Supermarket prices were slashed again, dropping 2 to 8 cents a dozen over a wide area.

Bumper supplies of lettuce, coupled with the specials on shrimp, make a salad of this sea food delicacy a good hot weather bargain meal. California and Arizona lettuce is being augmented by heads from the Carolinas, Virginia and New Jersey.

Also on the best buy list are bunched or topped western carrots, celery, radishes, green onions, white boiler onions, spinach and kale and collards. Supplies of carrots, celery and spinach all are running ahead of year-ago levels.

Somewhat higher this week are peppers, eggplant and cauliflower. Cucumbers are a bit lower but still no better than a moderate buy.

Plenty of fresh fruits also are available at bargain levels. Heading the list are oranges, grapefruit, strawberries, pineapples, watermelons and apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton G. Hall, East Hickory, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Lu, to Paul Eugene Eck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Eck, of Lucinda, Pa. Miss Hall is a 1956 graduate of West Forest and is employed by the New Process Company. An alumnus of North Clarion High School in 1956, Mr. Eck is employed by Pennsylvania Highway Department. No date has been set for the wedding.

Chief Cornplanter Council Boy Scouts of America, Is Planning 50th Anniversary

The appointment of Robert Anstadt as chairman of the 50th anniversary committee of the Chief Cornplanter Council, Boy Scouts of America, was announced by James Blomquist, president of the council.

ROBERT ANSTADT

The Boy Scouts of America will celebrate its fiftieth birthday in 1960. By the close of next year it is estimated that 33-500,000 different persons will have been identified with the organization since its inception in 1910, Mr. Blomquist said.

"Our program for youth," Mr. Blomquist said, "has extended its influence throughout the length and breadth of our land. It can be found in our nation's most sparsely settled areas, as well as in the midst of our great cities. Our twelve million boys have learned to live in the outdoors, felt the thrill of adventure, learned how to survive and become self-reliant citizens of our great land."

"The Boy Scouts of America has left a lasting impression on the life of our nation," Mr. Anstadt, the newly appointed chairman, said. Scouting has become a vital part of our American way of life. It merits the support and interest of every person, adults and boys alike, in celebrating this significant achievement for the youth of our land. We feel this anniversary must mark the beginning of a more aggressive effort to continue the program in its high efficient state and to reach the increasing number of boys who will be available due to our great population growth."

Mr. Anstadt's committee will encourage participation in all phases of the national program, develop suitable local programs and encourage unit and individual participation in all golden anniversary activities.

Scouting's Golden Jubilee year will be a year-long celebration marked by several great national events and by countless local celebrations.

The first will be Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13. Mr. Anstadt said in Washington, D. C., where the movement was originally incorporated, a selected Scout or Explorer from each of the 50 states and the territories will participate in activities with high officials representing all branches of the Federal Government.

They will also meet leaders of national organizations whose local branches sponsor the nation's 130,000 or more Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops and Explorer units.

Locally, Mr. Anstadt said, the celebration will recognize authorities and heads of local institutions for their help in making Scouting available to youth. During a nationwide television network broadcast everyone in Scouting will dedicate himself to the Scout Oath and Law.

Local leaders will also take part in the 50th annual meeting of the National Council to be held in Washington, D. C., on June 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Local Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders will be among the 52,000 expected to camp together at the fifth national jamboree. This will be held on a 2,000-acre camp site at Colorado Springs, Colo., within sight of Pike's Peak from Friday, July 23 through Thursday, July 28, 1960. It will be, Scout officials say, "a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for boys and adults to work together in an unforgettable experience in camping, group living and learning to love our nation."

During the national jamboree there will be outdoor events for the "Stay-at-homes." Cub Scouts will hold "Cub Scout Jubilees" on Saturday, July 23, while Boy Scouts will have three-day campouts and Explorers will stage Jubilee Field Days.

A principal golden anniversary activity will be the National Good Turn for 1960. This will be the third non-partisan Get-Out-the-Vote campaign conducted in cooperation with the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge. In 1956 more than 36 million Liberty Bell doorknob hangers were placed at the homes of America. This Good Turn impressed upon the boys who participated their place as young American citizens.

New Labor Bill Is Introduced By Rep. Kearns

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R-Pa.) has offered a new labor bill which he said would help unions do their own housecleaning.

Kearns, senior Republican on the House Labor Committee, said he thinks unions will do that "if they are given the necessary tools and real protection while the job is being done."

Kearns told a news conference he hopes to have Republican support for his bill. He said he has talked with administration leaders "from the vice president on down" and no one has objected to his introducing it.

The House Labor Committee is holding hearings on various approaches to labor-management reform legislation, including an administration bill and the measure known as the Kennedy bill passed by the Senate.

Kearns' bill includes what he described as a simple but comprehensive bill of rights for rank-and-file union members. He said it would go a long way toward insuring that control of the union would be in the hands of the members rather than the officials.

The bill would eliminate much of the authority delegated to the secretary of labor in other proposals. It would require union financial reports only to members of the unions. The Kennedy bill would require unions to file financial reports with the secretary of labor.

Kearns said the Kennedy bill relies on court enforcement and criminal penalties to back its provisions. His relies on the unfair labor practice procedure of the National Labor Relations Board.

RADIO and TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Saudek Associates, the creators of Omnibus will put a man in orbit — theoretically — on television Sunday.

In Saudek's words, "Space — Man's Last Frontier," a special hour program on NBC-TV will be principally concerned with "how you manage a round-trip ticket for man into space. It's easy to put him into space, but how do you bring him back into the atmosphere at 15,000 miles per hour?"

The program under the direction of William A. Graham will originate at a private research center (Avco) near Boston which is doing intercontinental ballistic missile work for the government. Prominent pioneers of the space age will participate.

Talking with Saudek reminds one that Omnibus this season won an estimated 30 per cent increase in its average audience over the previous year.

"You like to think that an increasing audience is exclusively the result of better shows," says Saudek. "But undoubtedly it is true that an audience snobbish. When we present such a program as Joseph Welch on capital punishment, it brings an audience back to see what we do next."

ABC-TV has signed for the exclusive television rights to the 1960 Olympic Winter Games from Squaw Valley, Calif. Walt Disney will stage the pageantry of the show.

Don Murray, who stars in the "Du Pont Show of the Month" production of "Billy Budd" on CBS-TV next Monday evening, is mighty happy about his role because he was turned down for it in the Broadway production. "Not the type," said the director.

Co-star Jason Robards and Murray worked together in summer stock 12 years ago. Murray says that Robards always played the villain then, too.

Sgt. Bilko remains irrepressible. Although Phil Silvers will not make any more of his Army comedy series for CBS-TV and now wants to be known as Silvers instead of Bilko re-runs of "The Phil Silvers Show" have been sold to 63 TV stations throughout the country beginning next October for 4 1/2 million dollars.

The Mature Parent

Mother's Real Fear for Son Should Be Brought Into Open

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Two years ago Warren fractured his leg in a fall from a playground slide.

This afternoon his mother looked out of the window to see him riding a friend's new bike. Though Ed was running beside him to support the saddle, Warren was having trouble keeping the handlebars steady.

Instantly his mother imagined him falling and again breaking his leg. In her mind's eye, she saw him lying in the drive, the leg twisted under him, the remembered look of pain on his face. She imagined the rush to the hospital, the lost school days and nights made restless by the cast on his leg.

Running to the door, she told him to come in and get at his homework. When he protested that Eddie had just arrived, she cried, "I don't care if he did. He's got to go home now!"

She is, of course, terribly afraid of Warren's breaking his leg.

But she's only half aware of her fear. As it lies just under the surface of her consciousness, she glimpses it only occasionally just as a fisherman will glimpse the vague shape of a shark rise in the sea to his net and then disappear. Like the hungry shark, her fear only disappears to appear again—and overwhelm her the moment Warren tries to ride a bike, talks of joining his school's scrub baseball team or going to summer camp.

This half-submerged state of the fear is her problem.

If she could lift it to the surface of her awareness, she could destroy it just as the fisherman can gaff the shark he has raised from the sea into the air. She could attack the fear instead of living in suspense for its attacks upon her.

She could telephone her doctor and say, "Is Warren's leg really healed well enough now for him to use it as freely as other boys use theirs?" And the doctor would say heartily, "Sure he can! Don't tell me you're still worrying over that leg of his!"

But so long as she keeps her fear half-seen and vague, her solutions to it will have to be vague and ineffective, too. She'll have to send Eddie home if Warren tries to ride his bike and lose her temper when he mentions baseball.

If these bans on physical activity killed the fear, I'd be for them. But they don't. Like the ungauffed shark, it still pursues her invisibly and relentlessly.

Veterans News

Questions and Answers

Q—When I come out of service next month I will be eligible as a Korean veteran for a GI home loan. Will I lose this eligibility if I sign up for re-enlistment?

A—No. You would not lose eligibility for a GI home loan by re-enlisting. However, you would be bound by the deadline of February 1, 1965, like any Korea veteran.

Q—If I should add the total disability income rider to my World War Two GI insurance policy, and become disabled, would the amount my beneficiaries would receive from the policy in case of my death be reduced in any way?

A—No. Disability payments made under the rider in no way decrease payments made to beneficiaries of your GI insurance policy.

Q—Is a "peacetime" veteran with a disability rated 50-percent entitled to more compensation for dependents?

A—Yes. Peacetime veterans rated 50-percent or more disabled may be entitled to additional compensation for a wife, minor children, or dependent parents.

Q—I was in a Japanese prison camp during the fighting in Korea. I have a dental condition traceable to my service, but for which I do not receive compensation from VA. Is there a deadline in my case for applying for VA out-patient dental treatment?

A—No. You may apply at any time, and receive as many treatments as needed.

Health Research Interviewers Are Making a Survey

The following news release has been received from Arnold Simmel, representing Health Research Inc., 84 Holland Avenue, Albany, N. Y., registered at the Penn-Laurel Motel:

Interviewers are again sampling the population of Warren as part of the study being conducted by Health Research, Inc. The present inquiry is designed to supplement the information gathered two months ago. The people interviewed at that time were very cooperative, and by and large seemed to find the interview interesting even though it was a very long interview. The interviews now being made are less than a quarter the length of the previous interviews, and should not take more than a few minutes.

As before, a scientifically designed sample of the population of Warren is being interviewed, to insure that a truly representative cross section of Warren opinion is obtained. The

News of Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Here comes the Phantom."

That's the way the older Crosbys greet their baby brother, Lindsay. He has earned the handle by his air of mystery. While the comings and goings of the other three are fairly predictable, Lindsay is always hard to locate. Here's how the brothers describe him:

Gary: "He's like the old man (Bing). He's more quiet than the rest of us, more sly with his humor."

Phillip: "He's the coolest one of us. He has a great disposition." Dennis: "Lindsay just exists. Lindsay differs in looks, too. He is the darkest of the four, with curly brown hair and heavy eyebrows, a slim, handsome face with cleft chin. At 21, he seems amazingly mature."

Gary and the twins were only a year apart. Lindsay came three and a half years later, and he recalls being an unwelcome tag-along during his boyhood. After Dixie died, Bing dropped his career to spend most of a year with Lindsay. They toured Europe, where Lindsay pursued his interest in art.

The lad attended a semester at Williams College in Massachusetts, then dropped out to serve his Army duty. "I liked Williams, but I didn't think I was getting anything out of it," he says.

Most of his Army service was at Ft. Ord, 300 miles north of Hollywood. It was during this time that he decided on a show business career. He emceed an Army show on a Los Angeles TV station and sang for teen-agers at roller rinks and dance halls.

"One night I looked down at all those kids watching me and I discover I was enjoying myself," he says.

Recently out of the Army, Lindsay shares a two-bedroom hillside home with singer Jimmy Boyd. He has made some records with

Farm Association
Leaders Approve
Amended Bill

Leaders of the Warren County Farmers' Association this week expressed support for the amended version of Senate Bill 688, which would transfer authority for regulation of farm employees from the Pennsylvania Department of Labor to a Migrant Farm Labor Commission.

Under the present conditions, The Department of Labor controls all regulations pertaining to migrant labor, without the necessity of giving consideration to the farmers.

The amended Bill in the Senate calls for the establishment of the migrant farm commission by the Governor, which would include a number of farmers or farm representatives equal to the number of committee members who are not farmers.

The President of the Warren County Farmers' Association, said this week that both the Pennsylvania State Grange and The Pennsylvania Farmers' Association are solidly in support of the Bill.

The two farm organizations contend that since agriculture is vitally affected by the imposition of rules and regulations pertaining to farm labor, farmers should have something to say about them.

In the past, farmers had virtually no voice. The Governor's migrant farm labor committee at present is comprised of officials of the various departments of Government in Harrisburg, by labor union officials, church groups, welfare groups and others not financially interested in agriculture.

Out of a committee of 25, farm representatives number only one or two who understand, or are sympathetic to agriculture's side of the picture. Said the local county farmers association president, "No one is questioning the need for rules and regulations concerning health standards, police regulations, liquor control, nor school laws which require school attendance by the children of farm workers."

"But we are concerned about the ever increasing demands for child labor laws, wage regulations and the unionization of farm workers, all of which are being promoted by the Department of Labor and the Governor's Migrant Farm Labor Committee."

Senate Bill 688 does not eliminate any of the regulations as provided under the present law. It does, however, specify that the police have certain duties in enforcing the law; that health authorities have the responsibility for housing and health conditions; that the liquor commission has responsibility for any illegal sale of liquor and that the Department of Agriculture shall have more responsibility than it has had in the past.

Co-sponsors of the Senate Bill are Elliott of Franklin, Madigan of Bradford; Shafer, Crawford; Blass, Erie; Van Sant, Lehigh; Whalley, Somerset; and Berger, Potter.

New Vicarage Is Being Erected
At Youngsville

The physical plant of St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal church in Youngsville continues to expand, according to the vicar, the Rev. R. Bruce Ryan.

A new vicarage is being constructed at the rear of the church and alongside the parish house facing College street. The building of this vicarage was brought about through a generous gift to St. Francis by Miss Anna G. Rockwell of Warren.

St. Francis people have worked toward this goal for some time and have accomplished a great deal by themselves. At the same time, they owe much to many friends like Miss Rockwell, who have given encouragement and financial support. Much credit is due to the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity Memorial church, Warren, and Henry Marymont, of Warren, who have provided wise counsel and constant service to the mission.

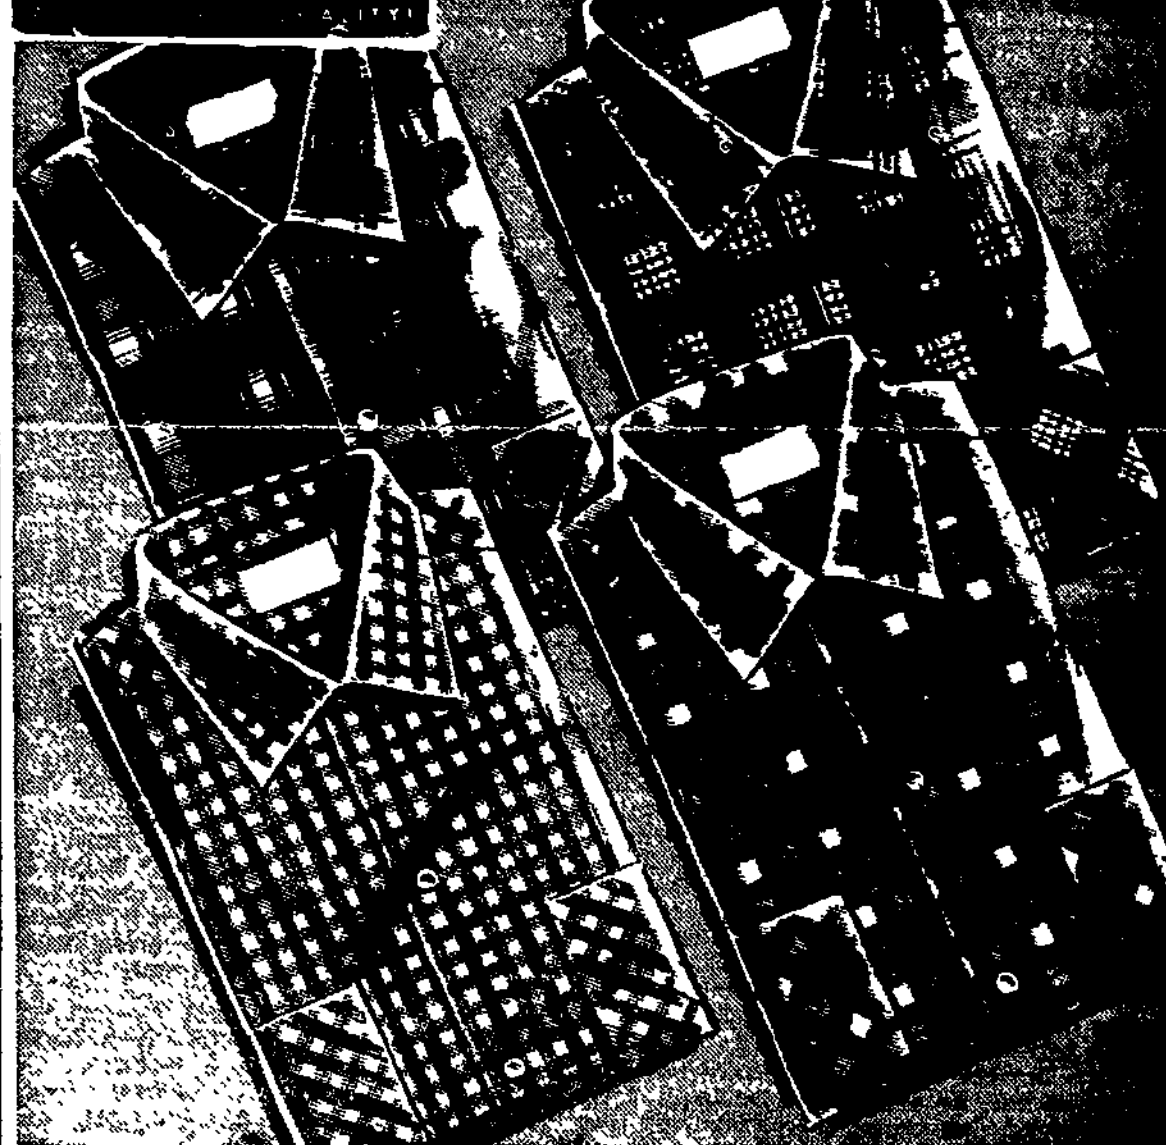

Beck and Tinkham, architects of Warren, have planned the new building, which is now under construction and should be completed by October 15. Peterson and Sturzenbecker of Jamestown, N. Y., are the general contractors and the electrical work is being done by Bevevino Electric Company of Warren; these two concerns having handled the general contracting and electrical work on the new church and parish house. Plumbing and heating will be done by Webster Plumbing Company in Russell.

The Yankees are last.

The club that has won nine American League pennants and seven world championships in 10 years is in the cellar.

You have to go back to May 25, 1940, to find a set of standings that shows the New York Yankees in eighth place at this stage of the season. And those 1940 Yankees, too, were world champions. They had won four consecutive World Series, and had swept the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati in four straight in 1938 and 1939.

Yet that New York Yankee club too was last. By Aug. 9 it still was only a 500 team (51-51), and while it was to make a brief stand in first place, it finished third — missing a fifth consecutive pennant by three games.

Detroit was the champion, by one game over Cleveland.

Of the 16 players Manager Casey Stengel used as Detroit plunked the Yankees into the cellar with a 13-6 crash Wednesday, only Enos Slaughter was in organized ball in 1940. He was the 24-year-old country boy playing outfield for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Stengel? He was managing the National League's old Boston Bees, who escaped the cellar in the last month and finished seventh.

While the nation's baseball fans eyed the bottom of the AL standings, Cleveland clung to the top with a 5-3 victory at Washington Wednesday night. The Chicago White Sox remained within half a game of the Indians by beating Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City whipped Boston 8-2.

Eddie Yost had three of Detroit's 19 hits and drove in six runs with two homers, one a grand slam. That was after Charlie Maxwell singled home two runs for a tie in the fifth against loser Bobby Shantz (0-2) and Gail Harris then broke the deadlock with a homer that opened a three-run sixth.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs for the Indians. Herb Score (4-2) beat the Senators on six hits.

Dick Donovan (2-2) gained his first complete game for the White Sox with a four-hitter. The Sox, who twice came from behind, won it in the fifth on singles by Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly that made it 3-2.

A two-run single by Frank House gave the A's a 3-1 lead in the fourth. Roger Maris drove in three runs, two with his 10th homer.

Woodlawn Vase, presented to the owner of each winner of the Preakness at Pimlico, is the oldest trophy in racing.

YANKEE COACH'S SERIES TO BEGIN

Soon on these sports pages, a series of seven articles on "Proper Pitching" by former Yankee southpaw ace Ed Lopat will begin. The series is composed of seven illustrated articles by Lopat, now a coach for 80 young pitchers in the Yankee system. Watch for this out-standing feature coming your way soon.

New Stocking Program Begins Friday In McKean

Cooperative "stocking area" project of U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Penna. Fish Commission will be in operation this week. The in-season stocking for the project will be made Friday and all areas will be posted by that time.

Five stocking areas on South Branch Kanawha Creek, McKean county, will be posted as Nursery Waters Fishing will be prohibited within the posted areas.

All future stockings will be done inside posted sections. Trout stocked within the posted areas will be available to the angler when they move into the sections open to fishing.

Primary objective of this study is to spread harvest of stocked fish to as great a percentage of fishermen possible over a longer period of time. Past in-season stocking in this area has provided bonus fishing for the truck-fishing fraternity, but relatively little sport for the remainder of the sportsmen. Studies on three Allegheny National Forest streams in 1958 proved a harvest in excess of 40 per cent within four hours of the stocking.

All fish stocked will be marked with the removal of a pelvic fin.

'They Got Millions, I Got the Fighter'

EDITOR'S NOTE: The second of a two-part study of The Strange Little World of Cus D'Amato.

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEA Staff Correspondent

Cus D'Amato is this kind of a guy. He gave Floyd Patterson a monkey his man fancied in a pet shop—anything to keep the fighter happy, because without the heavyweight champion, D'Amato's Strange Little World is kaput.

Before the Roy Harris joust in Los Angeles last August Cus interrupted one of his long monologues on the "evils of the IBC" (you can wind him up any time of day) to admit, "If we lose this fight, I'm through, washed up."

His hole card in the three-year fight against Jim Norris' monopoly has been: "They got the millions, I got the fighter."

Patterson — quiet, moody, withdrawn — is not unaware that Cus is using him, or that he's called a phantom champion. But he's never wavered in his loyalty to the man who poked him up hanging around the musty Gramercy Gym on New York's lower East Side and nursed him to boxing's No. 1 position. About Cus' ramblings, he shrugs his bemused smile, "Oh, you know Cus. He just talks."

When Floyd went to Helsinki for the 1952 Olympics, a writer made direct overtures to turn him over to another manager when he turned professional. Floyd refused.

D'Amato inspires those kind of loyalties. Charlie Black, a fight manager, was standing on a street corner several years ago. It was the day before Christmas. D'Amato came along, broke.

"You got any dough, Charlie?" he asked. "I gotta give my annual party for the boys at my gym."

Charlie fished in his pocket and pulled out a $50 bill. It was the last $50 he had. Black, whose fighting stable has vanished (Frankie Ryff, a lightweight, was the last) is one of D'Amato's enroute.

For a guy who's supposed to be cautious, Cus can also be suckered. A glib line by a man who couldn't deliver cost him $10,000 on the motion pictures of the Pete Rademacher fight. There was Cecil Rhodes, Jr., the shortest lived boxing promoter on record. Cus won't even mention the name, except to say, "He never got a quarter of my money."

D'Amato paid off Patterson's first wife before she crossed him and broke the marriage news in a scandal magazine.

D'Amato might not see Patterson for several weeks at a time. He won't know where he lieve he'd gone beyond his functioning as a manager, in lining up promoters and delving into the closed circuit television details and the affairs of Patterson's opponents.

"If I've gone beyond my functions as a manager," he said, "I've done it without detriment to my fighter and with his consent. He knows what I'm trying to do to benefit him in the long run, too."

Then Cus punched out the meaning of his crusade to him: "The only way I can get security for Cus D'Amato is by getting it for everybody else."

D'Amato broke with Norris over the fact the IBC promised and didn't give work to his preliminary fighters. He won't fight for Madison Square Garden "because I can't do business with them unless they got rid of Ned Irish (president) and Harry Markson (boxing director), old elements of the IBC." I asked him if he didn't be-

What we mean—this new Chevy's whipped up a one-car heat wave. Its fresh style caught on right away, of course. But—whether you prefer a V8 or 6—where Chevrolet really leaves the other cars in the shade is out on the road. A pair of Chevy 6's came in one-two in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. Keep Putter Low to Turf

I prefer a short, hitting action in putting. The backstroke should be slightly on the inside of the intended line of the putt with the blade tending toward a somewhat closed position. From the time the putter reaches the end of the backstroke, every action of the hands and arms should be intended to open the face of the putter through impact with the ball. The objective is to return the face of the putter to the ball in the same position it was in at address. The practice of opening the blade coming in to contact with the ball imparts the desired action to the ball. It keeps the right hand from turning over and thus pulling the ball to the left. This helps to eliminate misses to the left of the cup which is good percentage putting. When I miss a putt, it is usually to the right. The stroke is all arms, wrists and hands. There is absolutely no body motion.

Spurt of Cards Is Causing Sensation in the National

By ED WILKS
AP Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals finally have made a move to see how the other half lives in that National League pennant chase.

They're still seventh, just five days free of the cellar and eight games shy of first place, but the Redbirds are on their first real winning streak of the season after whipping Pittsburgh and winless Bob Friend 11-1 Wednesday night.

It was the Cards' fourth straight success and they did it on the six-hit pitching of Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell and the second successive three-RBI game by Bill White, who has six hits in eight trips for two nights.

That put St. Louis within four games of the first division after Los Angeles slipped to fourth by splitting a two-night doubleheader with Cincinnati. The fifth-place Reds beat the Dodgers 7-5 after an opening 8-4 defeat.

The San Francisco Giants retained second, ending Milwaukee's winning streak at six games, 6-3. Chicago's persistent Cubs remained in third with a 7-5 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Joe Mauer belted a three-run homer as the Dodgers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the seventh inning after Roy McMillan missed second base on what would have been an inning-ending double play. Danny McDevitt (3-2) gave up 10 hits, after holding the Reds hitless for five innings, while beating Brooks Lawrence (3-4).

Don Newcombe, now 2-2 against his old mates, won the nightcap for the Reds with a six-hitter.

Ernie Banks' 10th homer, a three-run drive in the eighth, won for the Cubs and Moe Drabowsky (2-3), who needed relief after Harry Hanebrink's pinch-two-run homer in the seventh.

Basilio Sweats It Out Awaiting Definite Stand

NEW YORK (AP)—Round and round the Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio debate goes. Where it will stop nobody knows.

The New York State Athletic Commission, which appears about ready to strip Robinson of his title, has recessed its hearing until Friday afternoon. Basilio sweated it out Wednesday while lawyers objected and took exceptions to a stream of questions.

The issue revolved on Robinson's compliance or failure to comply with an April 30 order by the State Supreme Court and the commission to "enter into articles of agreement to defend against Basilio in 15 days (May 15) or risk vacating the title."

Robinson claims he has entered into an agreement to fight Basilio in Philadelphia Sept. 31 for promoter Sam Rose. Part of the contract was filed with the commission Monday. The rest was to have been produced Wednesday. It didn't show.

The commission ruled it was evident the Pennsylvania contract was invalid because it was not between two licensees.

When the season was all over, the chances of a Robinson-Basilio fight seemed less than ever.

Alexander the Great conquered most of the then-known world and died at the age of 33.

St. Louis Wallops Pirates, Winless Friend, 11 to 1

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Waited: A figure one in the won column of Pittsburgh pitcher Bob Friend.

The husky righthander, winner of 22 games last season, can't buy a victory this year. He wound up with his seventh straight loss against St. Louis Wednesday night.

The Cardinals bombed Friend off the mound in the second inning and went on to walloping the Pirates 11-1. Before reliever Don Gross was called in, St. Louis had pounded Friend for five hits and six runs, four of them earned.

To add to manager Danny Murtagh's headaches, bullpen ace Elroy Face cut two fingers of his pitching hand on a broken water glass. It took five stitches to close the wounds.

It was believed that Face, who has a sparkling 6-0 record, would be out of action four or five days.

The Pirates fumbled three balls afield and rapped only six hits off Vinegar Bend Mizell. The errors—two by Dick Groat and one by Dick Stuart—permitted two runs to score.

The Pirates scored their run in the first inning on a leadoff single by Bill Virdon. Don Hoak's single and Roman Mejias' grounder.

The defeat was the Pirates' fourth in their last five games.

Harvey Haddix goes against the Cards tonight in the last of a three-game series.

Some of these pairs are quite complicated and must cause the students a lot of trouble. In fact, the hands might well stick most of the experts. Hand five is one of the easier ones.

It is a North-South par. They must bid and make four spades. If they get there the play is simple enough. Declarer wins the opening lead and plans a spade. This puts the defense in and declarer wins the next trick. Another spade lead loses a second trump trick but now declarer goes about his business of playing anything he wishes and winds up making his contract.

Three no-trump won't make and the catch in the hand is to get to spades. North and South each have a bad four-card spade suit but one or the other should bid it whereupon the spade game is reached easily.

FISH-PLAYING TIPS

If you fish for bass, ET CETERA, IN OR NEAR WEED BEDS, USE A HIGH-TEST LINE. THIS IS MOST IMPORTANT IF USING SPINNING TACKLE (GET THE ANTI-REVERSE AND DRAG ACCORDINGLY!), OR A FLY-FISHING LEADER. THUS, IF A FISH IS HOOKED OUTSIDE THE WEEDS, "HORSE" IT IF NEED BE SO IT CAN'T GET INTO THE WEEDS. A FISH'S FIRST TRUNT IS USUALLY THE STIFFEST TACKLE-TEST.

LIGHTER LINES MAY BE USED IN STREAM AND OPEN-WATER FISHING. LET FISH RUN FREELY ON FIRST RUN—IT'S USUALLY SHORT; REEL IN WHEN IT STOPS. GIVE LINE WHEN FISH GOES AGAIN.

East and West German delegations were not invited to the dinner. Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville have been putting out word for days that there would be no point in having private talks if the Germans were included because the meeting would be too big.

Herter invited each of the other three foreign ministers and two advisers each for himself and for them. On the U.S. side, he asked Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and Asst. Secretary of State Livingston T. Merchant. In each of the other delegations he asked the No. 2 man and the top diplomatic adviser of the foreign minister.

Gromyko will bring along Valerian Zorin, deputy minister of foreign affairs; and Alexandre Soldatov, chief of the ministry's American department.

Unsure of what concessions the Soviets might be willing to make, they were refusing to fall in with implied Soviet suggestions that they put aside their sweeping master plan for German reunification and get down to bargaining on such individual issues as the future of Berlin.

Chiefly on French insistence, the Western ministers were holding back until Gromyko produced more acceptable proposals.

Gromyko's wary opening moves were made both in the formal sessions of the conference at the Palace of Nations and in private talks with the Western ministers, especially Britain's Selwyn Lloyd.

Western diplomats reported Wednesday night that the Soviet foreign minister told Lloyd he was definitely interested in negotiating seriously on four issues included in the Western package plan for a German peace settlement.

These call for a new arrangement for West Berlin, an East-West nonaggression declaration, creation of a committee of West and East Germans to bring the two Germanys closer together, and the establishment of a central European zone in which armed forces would be limited to a minimum.

Gromyko had previously told the conference that he was prepared to discuss these subjects. But his talk with Lloyd evidently was designed to emphasize that he was serious and felt these issues of fered hope for progress toward arranging a summit meeting.

The debate over the rival Soviet and Western peace plans for Germany is expected to continue through Friday and may run into next week.

It has boiled down to a deadlock which neither side has any hope of breaking — the Soviet demand for an immediate peace treaty with a divided Germany vs. the Western demand for German unification before signing a treaty.

clary, a cut of $2,335,700. Appropriations for the Justice Department and the judiciary are more than were provided for the present year. For the other agencies they are slightly less.

In a bill scheduled for House debate next week, the committee approved funds to reactivate the federal prison at Sandstone, Minn., and for a speed-up in construction of new Voice of America broadcasting stations near Greenville, N.C.

The committee approved creation of a new State Department unit of 16 positions to combat international Communist activities of an economic character.

It may be your turn to get doused.

URGE CONEWANGO STUDY

Jamestown Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors made a resolution Tuesday to study the Conewango Valley Dam project. The resolution said that study should be made on the inherent advantages of the Conewango plan for flood control as "evidence available indicates the Conewango plan is much superior to the Kinzua Plan". The Chamber cited three reasons for their statement, larger storage of water, recreation possibilities greater and cost would be less.

TIMELY ADVICE FROM CO. AGENT

Birdfoot Trefol Seedling Outlined

Birdfoot trefol is the ideal legume for permanent pastures and also for silage and hay on soils too wet for alfalfa, says Asst. County Agent, Blaine Schlosser. However, because trefol seeds are so small, special care must be used to assure good stands. Here are some suggestions to follow:

Have soil acidity tests made and apply lime as needed. Apply fertilizer according to a complete soil test. Where soil tests are not available, work in deeply 400 pounds per acre of an 0-20-20 fertilizer or equivalent at time of seeding.

Seed in the early spring, either with no companion crop or with no more than 1 to 1½ bushels of oats. If oats are used remove them as pasture, grass silage, or hay before they reach maturity.

Use simple mixtures—no other legume with birdfoot trefol, and only one grass. Either Climax timothy or S-37 Orchardgrass are satisfactory grasses.

Sow 6 pounds per acre of trefol with a grass or 9 pounds alone. Inoculate just before seeding with two to three times the recommended amount of inoculant.

Band seed and cultipack or roll before and after seeding. Control weeds in seedling year by clipping them low. Fertilize every year with 400 pounds per acre of 0-20-20 or 0-15-30.

whole thing became very disturbing. The news came from London. Two doctors there reported that some people can get plastered, stoned, bombed, ported, crocked, em b a l m e d, stiff, inebriated, drunk, and awful silly on just plain water.

There were nine case histories of people who began with some emotional distress and found themselves reacting to water the way the rest of us react to too much liquor. Tanked up with water, their speech slurred, eyelids drooped, minds became giddy. They got hangovers the next day.

For us old-fashioned whisky drinkers, the news was strangely pleasing at first. All along, we suspected water drinkers as being too self-righteous; behind all that rampant white virtue there had to lurk some dark vice. Now we know.

Still, it's unsettling to think about the water addict—the Aquaholic, the potential member of Aquaholics Anonymous. The bad water drinker could become more of a social problem than the alcoholic. There's so much of the stuff around.

How would you get a guy off this cheap sauce? Where would you hide him?

Every swimming pool would be suspect. So would every bath and shower and no Aquaholic could be allowed to take either alone. The worst possible way to begin a marriage with one would be a honeymoon to Niagara Falls.

The office water cooler would take on pathological overtones. The phrase, "Ice water in his veins," would take on a dark meaning and TVA, Grand Coulee Dam and every irrigation project from Arizona to the Negev would suddenly acquire new fanatical supporters.

The problems don't end there. Which wagon would the Aquaholic go on after he makes his New Year's resolution? Certainly not the water wagon.

How would you bring him back to life on the morning after? Black coffee would be verboten; it has water in it. Likewise tomato juice. Even 100-proof whisky would be out because it has 50 per cent water. Liquid mercury would be safe except it would kill him.

Oil and water, you say, don't mix. Right! Give him cod liver oil, castor oil, or just crankcase oil. That would sober him up but in the process you'd be getting the water addict well-oiled.
